Fiontini – Denmark celebrates World Champion in Verden

Verden – „I feel fine“, said Severo Jesus Jurado Lopez, and this was already obvious before the final competition was over. The Spanish rider in the saddle of the new five-year-old World Champion of Young Dressage Horses already showed the audience right and left side of the finishing line a brilliant smile. And the sense of well-being continued – because the 25-year-old Spanish rider and the Fassbinder-daughter out of a Romanov Blue Hors-dam won the WC-title with a final score of 9.18. She was just ahead of Fiontini's full sister Fiontina. The two Danish warmblood mares were carried by surrogate mares, they are the product of an embryo transfer.

„She was always concentrated on me and my aids, a super horse,“ said the rider who felt a bit of the high expectations placed on him, “but when the competition starts, you only concentrate on your performances.” He had already won the qualifier with the big-framed brown mare. Following eighth place in the qualifier, the Danish rider Andreas Helgstrand now won the silver medal with the chestnut mare Fiontina, scoring 9.02 and thus complementing the sensational success of the breeders of both horses – Hanne Lund and Henrik Hansen from Denmark.

But the title did definitely also create enthusiasm with breeders and owners when it comes to the next generation. Fiontini – new World Champion of Young Dressage Horses – and the Danish stallion Sezuan, 2014 World Champion and also favourite for the title this year, have already a common foal – Souvenir.

The best German horse of the WC-Final finished third, the Hanoverian stallion Quantensprung by Quando-Quando – Donnerhall, a noble liver chestnut with a first-class dressage pedigree. His rider Vera Nass, who presented Quantensprung for the breeders' alliance B. Wahler and A. Böckmann in Verden, piloted the youngster with an easy contact and slight aids through the final test. The stallion received four scores of 9 and better – Vera Nass and the stallion earned top scores for all three basic gaits which was no surprise for Manfred Schäfer, Chairman of the Hannoveraner Verband. "Quantensprung was already very popular at the Stallion Licensing three years ago," smiled Schäfer.

Quarton, Revolution and Quotenkönig top three of the Small Final

Two Swedish and a Westphalian warmblood have qualified for the Final of six-year-old dressage horses at the so-called Small Final. Quarton by Quaterback – Don Schufro, presented by the Finish rider Yvonne Österholm in Verden, won the Small Final with a final score of 8.46. Second place went to the black-brown gelding Revolution by Skovens Rafael – Fürst Heinrich, with the black-brown gelding, ridden by Anna Svaneberg being awarded a final score of 8.38. Third new competitor in the Final on Sunday will be the Westphalian stallion Quotenkönig by Quarterback – Fürst Piccolo under Lisa Lindner (Hünxe) with a final mark of 8.14.

The results will certainly delight the staff at the National State Stud Neustadt-Dosse in Brandenburg a couple of hundred kilometres away as the chestnut stallion Quarterback, sire of Quarton and Quotenkönig, is the frequently used star of the breeders of the Brandenburg stallions.
